THE CHANGE OF LIFE

Is the most important period in a woman's existence. Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and some-times painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop for good, are symptoms of a dangerous, nervous trouble. Those hot flashes are just so many calls from Entire Session to be Devoted nature for he'p. The nerves are cry-

CUDAHY WILL START WEAK AND NERVOUS WOMEN

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

Woman's life is a tragedy. It is a succession of defeats. Through ignorance SETTING DELAYS the first experiences of womanhood are encountered without the slightest preparation, and the nerves receive their first serious shock.

Nothing is done to relieve this young woman. No one seems to possess the knowledge which will aid her. The family physician makes light of her troubles and tells her that all women have them. She is a benutiful girl and should make a beautiful woman. Her disposition is sweet, her form and movement full of grace. Why can she not retain these gifts of nature? She has sensitive nerves and every about they receive leaves its mark on face or form or disposition-generally on all. She has some severe illness. Her courage is shaken by the prospect of constantly recurring suffering, and at twenty she is pale and thin, alternately cheerful and sail, but always nervous. Then she marries; new obligations are undertaken with additional strain on the nerves. A year or two further along she begins to have turns of being cross and snappy, and can't seem to help it. From this point on to middle age the lines of beauty are replaced by lines of cure, and control of the nerves is presently entirely gone. There is a great pity in all this, for such a history is common. Dr. Greene's Nervura life. The grandest medicine for weak and suffering women ever prepared.

MRS. W. A. TINKHAM, of Stowe, Vt., says: "About six months ago I found myself in an extreme nerrous condition. This has been gradually growing upon me for several years and I cannot tell what I suffered, it was beyond description. I got no rest or sleep nights and my work was done in constant agony. I imagined there was some impending evil constantly hanging ever me and could not red myself of the idea that insamily was in slore for me. I have better than to do loss of things that I did do but could not help if. I was indeed a wreek, and was on the point of giving up in despair. I employed physicians who did me no good and my condition continually greek were. Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervara blood and near remedy. I commenced taking it and before using the first bettle up there was decided improvement. I have now used most three bottles and an entirely cured of all my troubles."

The discoverer of this health-building remedy is Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, and all women may consult him personally or by letter without charge. The young, middle-aged, or old will find his advice the promptest and surest help. Write freely for advice or call.
